Carlisle Residential Welcomes New Product Director

(Carlisle, PA)— Carlisle Residential, a leading manufacturer of roofing and waterproofing products and a division of Carlisle Construction Materials, is proud to announce Michael McAuley as its new Director of Residential Products. In this role, McAuley will be responsible for managing the Carlisle Residential product lines.

McAuley brings extensive industry knowledge and experience to this position. For the past 11 years, he has worked for Versico, LLC, another division of Carlisle Construction Materials, and a leading provider of single-ply roofing systems. Along with industry knowledge, McAuley also brings extensive management experience to this position. Most recently, he has served as Versico's General Manager, a position he will retain when he joins the Carlisle Residential team.

"With his extensive background in the roofing industry and his vast knowledge of Carlisle's products, we believe Mike will successfully meet the challenges of this new position," said Carlisle Construction Materials Vice President of Sales and Marketing Nick Shears. "This move will help strengthen Carlisle's presence in the residential construction market and expand our reputation as the industry's leading source of building materials."
